Worksheet
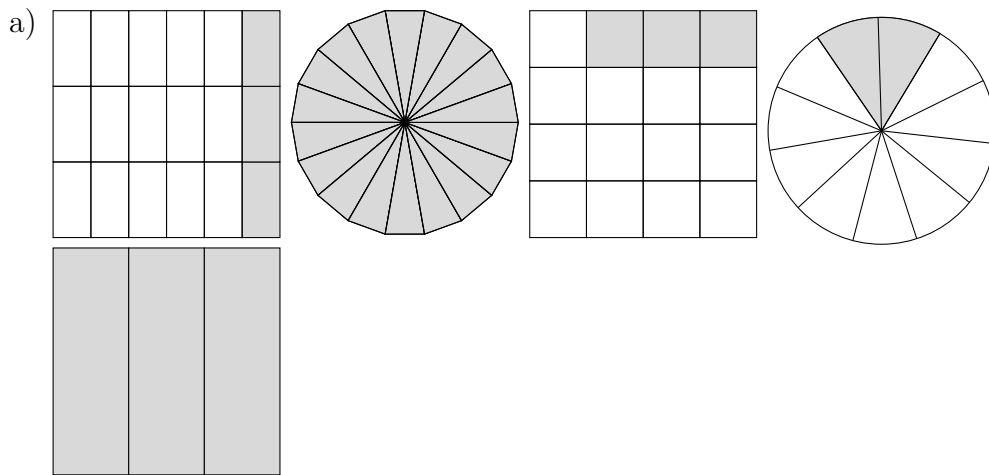

05/18/2020

Free on dw-math.com
Problem quickname: 2211

1)

Two shapes have the same fraction of their areas shaded. Which are the two?

a)

The shapes are at position 2 and 5. The value of these fractions is $\frac{1}{1}$.

b)

The shapes are at position 1 and 3. The value of these fractions is $\frac{1}{3}$.
2)

Two shapes have the same fraction of their areas shaded. Which are the two?

a)

The shapes are at position 3 and 4. The value of these fractions is $\frac{3}{4}$.

b)

The shapes are at position 3 and 4. The value of these fractions is $\frac{2}{3}$.

3)
Two shapes have the same fraction of their areas shaded. Which are the two?

a)

The shapes are at position 1 and 5. The value of these fractions is $\frac{1}{2}$.
b)

The shapes are at position 2 and 3. The value of these fractions is $\frac{7}{10}$.
4)

Two shapes have the same fraction of their areas shaded. Which are the two?

a)

The shapes are at position 1 and 5. The value of these fractions is $\frac{2}{5}$.

b)

The shapes are at position 2 and 3. The value of these fractions is $\frac{2}{3}$.

Good Luck!